

FUNDING ALERT

*A Service of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer
Office of Grants Management and Development
Internet Address: www.dccfo.com*

Volume 2, Issue 31

August 9, 1999

DISTRICT FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Capacity Building HIV/AIDS. The D.C. Department of Health, (DOH) Administration for HIV/AIDS announces funds to strengthen the infrastructure, increase the fiscal stability and expand the service capacity of community-based organizations, that are currently providing HIV/AIDS prevention services to residents of the District of Columbia. $60,000 is available to award 1-3 grants. Deadline is September 3. Applications will be available on August 12 from OGMD and on the internet by August 16.

Youth Mentoring/Tutoring. DOH/APRA announces funds for one $40,000 award to provide a mentoring and tutoring program to prevent substance abuse in high-risk youth in the District of Columbia. The program must be located at the Stanton Dwellings Public Housing Complex. The deadline is August 26. Applications are available at OGMD and on the internet by August 10.

Adult Education for Low-Income Parents. The D.C. Department of Human Services (DHS) announces funds to provide adult education services for TANF eligible low income parents. $3.5 million dollars is available. There is no dollar limitation on the amount an applicant can seek, but the intention is to fund multiple awards. Eligible organizations include private entities such as community development corporations, community action agencies, community-based and faith-based organizations, public and private institutions of higher education, small businesses; and private non-profit and for-profit organizations. Deadline is September 14. Applications will be available from OGMD on August 13 and on the internet by August 22.

Applications for the District grants listed above may be obtained from OGMD at 717 14th Street, NW, Suite 1200 or on the internet at www.dccfo.com under grants. For additional information, please call OGMD at 202-727-6537.

STILL OPEN DISTRICT FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (S.A.N.E.) Program. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds to award one grant for $200,000 to a hospital that has worked in conjunction with the D.C. Rape Crisis Center. The purpose of the grant is to reduce crime and improve public safety. The deadline is August 23 at 6:00 p.m

Crime Victims Assistance Grants. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds to support programs that enhance Crime Victim Services in the District of Columbia. There are four categories of funding opportunities. Applicants may submit proposals in each category. Funding priorities are programs that deal with: Victims of Child Abuse, Victims of Sexual Abuse, Victims of Domestic Violence and Previously Under Served Priority Areas. $865,450 is available to fund applications under this solicitation. Deadline is August 26 at 6:00 p.m. Eligible applicants are nonprofit organizations and non-federal government agencies.

Crime Prevention for Disabled Persons. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds for one award at $200,000 which focuses on crime prevention for disabled persons. The goal of the grant is to provide personal safety training to adults with disabilities (both physical and developmental), their caregivers, and provide training to police officers on how to communicate and interact with persons with disabilities. Deadline is August 12 at 6:00 p.m

FUNDING ALERT

Office on Aging, Fiscal Year 2000 Grant. The DC Office on Aging is soliciting applications to provide a full array of services and activities to enhance the overall health and well being of the senior population, with particular emphasis on the low-income minority elderly. Deadline is August 24.

Applications for the District grants listed above may be obtained from OGMD at 717 14th Street, NW, Suite 1200 or on the internet at www.dccfo.com under "Grants." For additional information, please call OGMD at 202-727-6537.

Drug Prevention and Children-At-Risk Fund. The D.C. Department of Recreation and Parks (DCRP) is seeking applications from non-profit organizations with programs that focus on promoting the positive self-worth of youth under 18, and have demonstrable experience working with at-risk youth. The maximum award is $10,000 for an individual program and $25,000 for a collaborative effort of two or more organizations. Deadline is September 15. Applications can be obtained by calling DCRP at (202) 673-2088.

DISTRICT GOVERNMENT GRANT MANAGERS - DID YOU KNOW?

OGMD will publish your subgranting opportunities, at no charge, in this weekly publication. Hundreds of organizations would be notified. In addition, OGMD is available to manage the subgranting process for District agencies. For additional information contact OGMD at (202) 727-6537.

FEDERAL FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Gender-Responsive Strategies: Research, Practice, and Guiding Principals for Women Offenders, Solicitation for a Cooperative Agreement. The U.S. Department of Justice, National Institute of Corrections announces funds for one cooperative agreement for a two year $200,000 project. Deadline is August 27. Eligible applicants are private or non-profit organizations, institutions, individuals, or team. For additional information contact Judy Evens at (202) 307-3106 ext. 159 or on the internet at www.nicic.org under "What's New".

PRIVATE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Prince CharitableTrust: Last week the Chicago phone number for this organization was published. The local D.C. number and contact person is Kristin Paluy. Please direct inquiries to Kristin Paluy at (202) 728-0646. Health, Social Services and Education concept proposals need to be in by September 1st.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Youth Substance Abuse Prevention State Incentive Grant. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration awarded the District of Columbia government. $1,997,1005 for the first year of a three year grant to implement community-based substance abuse prevention programs. Eighty-five percent of these funds will be subgranted to community-based organizations. The first round of subgranting will be announced next month. OGMD will be managing the subgranting process.

Student Financial Assistance. The Martin Luther King Memorial Library operates the Greater Washington College Information Center. This is a free service that offers computerized college and scholarship search programs and scholarship guides. Librarians are available to assist you in your search. Call ahead for schedule of Center's hours and counselor availability. Telephone is (202) 393-1100.